Telephone & Absentee Bidding is a service that is provided by Elder Fine Art as a convenience to its customers. Please ensure that all bids are submitted before the auction at a reasonable time. Elder Fine Art will not be found responsible for an error or failure to execute bids.

Absentee Bidding - All lots will be bought as reasonably as is allowed by reserves and other bids, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the auction. If identical absentee bids are made as others, Elder Fine Art will give precedence to the first absentee bid received. It is the Absentee bidder's responsibility to verify if they were successful with their Absentee bidding.

Payment for purchases must be made in full within five working days from the original day of sale.
